

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction	xi
CHAPTER 1. THE UNIONIZATION OF FARM LABOR	1
I. Farm Labor and the National Labor Relations Act	1
II. How Farmworkers Are Organizing Without the Help of a National Labor Relations Act	6
A. The Method and Problems Encountered in Organizing Farmworkers	8
B. The Tactics	17
1. Implementing the Strike	17
2. Proposed Regulation of Strike Activity	20
3. The Boycott	21
a. Effect of the Boycott	22
b. Legality of the Boycott	23
4. Legislative Proposals to Include Farmworkers Within the Scope of the NLRA	28
III. Conclusion	31
A. The Argument Against Higher Wage Rates	32
B. The Argument for Higher Wage Rates	33
C. A Proposal: Decasualization	35
CHAPTER 2. FARM LABOR CONTRACTORS AND LOW FARM WAGES	39
I. The Success of the Farm Labor Contractor	39
A. Migrants	40
B. Day-Haulers	42
C. Farmer Reliance	44
II. Abuse of Farmworkers	45
III. Control of Labor Contractors	46
A. Federal Farm Labor Contractor Registration Act	47
B. State Acts	48
1. Licensing	48
2. Prohibited Practices	49
3. Duties	49
4. Revocation or Suspension of License	50
5. Penalties	50
IV. Suggested Reforms	50
A. Grower Liability	51
B. Surety Bonds	52

CHAPTER 3. ILLEGAL ENTRANTS: THE WETBACK
PROBLEM IN AMERICAN FARM LABOR	55
I. The Invasion	55
II. Consequences of the Wetback Invasion	58
A. Competition for Wages and Jobs	58
B. Impact on the Community	59
III. Control of Wetback Traffic	60
A. Apprehension: The Role of the Border Patrol	61
B. Deportation and Voluntary Departure: The Process of Removal	62
C. Criminal Penalties	63
1. Unlawful Entry	64
2. Smuggling	64
3. Transporting, Concealing, and Harboring	65
D. The Effect of Present Law	65
IV. Efforts For Change: The Dilemma	66
A. Congressional Activity	66
B. Civil Actions	67
C. Some Suggestions	68
CHAPTER 4. FARM LABOR HOUSING IN CALIFORNIA ...	71
I. Introduction	71
A. Historical Setting	71
B. Poor Housing Conditions: A Consequence of Low Wages	72
C. Characteristics of the Market for Farm Labor Housing	73
II. Types of Farm Labor Housing: Contribution Toward Meeting the Demand	74
A. Employee Housing	74
1. Supply and Condition	75
2. Financing	77
3. Another Approach	78
B. Public Housing	78
1. Farm Labor Supply Centers	79
2. OEO Migrant Housing	79
3. Local Public Housing	82
C. Private Housing	87
1. Self-Help Housing	89
2. Housing Industry	91
a. Development of a Low-Cost Unit	92

b.	Building Codes	94
c.	Financing	95
d.	New Federal Subsidy Programs	97
III.	Building Codes and their Enforcement	100
A.	Federal Regulations	100
B.	California State and Local Codes	102
1.	Regulation of Employee Housing	102
2.	Regulation of Rural Non-Farm Housing	105
IV.	Conclusion	108
CHAPTER 5. WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION, MINIMUM WAGE, AND THE FARMWORKER
I.	Introduction	113
II.	Workmen's Compensation	115
A.	The Law Prior to Workmen's Compensation	115
B.	Present Workmen's Compensation Systems	118
1.	Characteristics of a Typical Act	118
2.	Types of Coverage under Workmen's Compensation Laws	120
a.	Compulsory Coverage	121
b.	Elective Coverage	121
c.	Voluntary Coverage	122
C.	Workmen's Compensation and the Farmworker ...	123
1.	The Coverage of Farm Labor	123
a.	Farm Labor Excluded	124
b.	Farm Labor Partially Covered	125
c.	Farm Labor Covered	127
2.	Reasons for Excluding Farm Labor	127
D.	Suggestions for Reform	129
III.	Minimum Wage	133
A.	Federal Legislation	133
1.	Coverage of Farmworkers Under the Fair Labor Standards Act	133
2.	Reasons for Discriminatory Treatment of Farmworkers	137
B.	State Legislation	140
1.	States That Have No Wage Laws	140
2.	States with Wage Laws That Exclude All Farmworkers	140
3.	States with Wage Laws that Cover Only Females and Minors	141

4. States with Wage Laws that Cover
Farmworkers	142
C. The Need for Change	145
D. Suggestions for Reform	148
IV. Conclusion	153
CHAPTER 6. HEALTH INSURANCE FOR FARMWORKERS	155
I. Introduction	155
II. The Health Needs of Agricultural Employees	156
III. Government Financed Health Care	158
IV. Private Employer Contributions to Health Care	162
A. Characteristics of the Farm Labor Work Force	162
B. Private Insurance Plans Now Used in Agriculture	166
V. Expansion of Private Employer Coverage	168
A. Reasons for Expansion	168
B. Recommended Changes in Current Health Plans	169
VI. Conclusion	171
CHAPTER 7. THE WELFARE SYSTEM AND THE FARM
LABORER	173
I. Introduction	173
II. The Welfare System: The Recipient's Viewpoint	176
A. Welfare Programs	176
B. Welfare Inequities Caused by Eligibility
Requirements	178
C. The Problem with Eligibility Requirements	184
III. Rural Political and Economic Pressures	185
A. Local Administration and the Rural Setting	185
1. Historical Perspective	188
2. The Creation of the Unemployed Parent Provision and Its Implementation in Rural Counties	189
3. Concluding Remarks on Farm Labor Referrals and the Rural Recipient	192
B. Correcting Problems of Local Administration	193
IV. The Migrant Farm Laborer: Transiency and
Residence Requirements	199
V. Farm Laborers' Employment Situation:
Low Income and Sporadic Employment	205
A. Lack of Economic Protections and
Its Effect on Welfare Services	205
1. Farm Labor Welfare Problems Due to Low Wages	206

2. Farm Labor Welfare Problems Due to Sporadic Employment	208
B. Bulletin No. 644: Administrative Attempts to Correct Farmworkers' Welfare Problems	209
C. Legislative Attempts to Correct Welfare Problems Caused by Low Income	212
D. Judicial Attempts to Correct Welfare Problems Caused by Low Income	213
VI. Conclusion	214
CHAPTER 8. THE NON-VOTING FARMWORKER: DISENFRANCHISED BY DESIGN?	217
I. Introduction	217
II. The Farmworker Vote	218
III. Voter Qualifications	220
A. State Authority over Elections	220
B. Voting Restrictions in Operation	222
C. The Impact on Farmworkers	224
1. United States Citizenship	224
2. Age	225
3. Residence	226
4. Voter Registration	228
5. Literacy and Education	231
IV. Conclusion	234
CHAPTER 9. LEGAL ASSISTANCE IN THE RURAL SETTING – PRESENT OPERATION AND PROSPECTUS FOR THE FUTURE	237
I. Introduction	237
II. Development of Legal Assistance	238
III. Instituting a Legal Assistance Program Under OEO ...	240
IV. Primary Legal Aid Models	242
V. Analysis and Evaluation of Legal Aid Models in Operation	244
A. The Full-time Staff Approach—CRLA	244
1. Organization and Administration	244
2. The CRLA Practice	249
B. The “Judicare” Approach—Wisconsin Judicare ...	255
1. Organization and Administration	256
2. Practice	257
VI. Summary and Conclusion	258
TABLE OF CASES	265
INDEX	267

